Airline flights may be changed or altered as required by airline schedule changes. If a ticket is already issued, the travel agent will be asked whenever possible to revalidate or reissue the ticket.

Airfares used are based on capacity controlled as well as contract, promotional or group fares. Most airline tickets issued by Admiral Cruises are highly restrictive due to the type of airfare used by Admiral Cruises. Because of this, you may find that your ticket cannot be reissued or exchanged for another air carrier or routing.

Flight Schedules

Air/sea flight schedules are usually confirmed to Admiral Cruises six weeks prior to sailing date. Although airlines no longer require reconfirmation of flights, schedule changes do occur and we recommend that passengers reconfirm flights with the airlines prior to departure.

Admiral Cruises will assist passengers in booking hotel accommodations, but the cost of such accommodations will be the responsibility of the passenger.

Some airfares issued by Admiral Cruises may be subject to cancellation/rebooking penalties. Cancellations or changes made once the ticket has been issued by Admiral Cruises are the sole responsibility of the passenger. If a passenger cancels the cruise after tickets have been issued. the cancellation fee charged to Admiral Cruises will be deducted from the passenger's refund.

Seat Assignments

Airline seat assignments cannot be confirmed by Admiral Cruises.

Transfers

For passengers arranging air transportation through Admiral Cruises, a complimentary transfer service will be provided from Los Angeles International Airport to the ship and from the ship to Los Angeles International Airport on sailing days only. The air carrier is not to be held responsible for any act or event which takes place while passengers are not on board its conveyances. The services of any ARC or IATA member carrier may be used in conjunction with this program.

Take Along Your Car Or RV

Admiral Cruises is the only luxury cruise line that lets you take your car or RV to Mexico. So you can combine the best of two worlds—luxury cruising at its finest, and the freedom of taking a land tour at your own pace.

It's by far the most comfortable way to take a vehicle below the border. And the most reasonable. An Admiral cruise is also the best way to trailer your boat to Mexico.

You can disembark at Puerto Vallarta or Mazatlán. Enjoy Mexico's warm winter sun at excellent RV parks on the outskirts of either city. They offer purified water and modern conveniences. Or drive through Mexico's colorful countryside. Take as long as you like on your own. Then board the ship again at either port for the trip north, any week during our cruising season. Or cruise one way and drive the other if you prefer.

During the cruise, your vehicle is stowed safely on one of the Stardancer's two car decks, while you enjoy the comforts of your cabin. Loading and unloading is simple — just drive on and off the ship. For more information on cruising with your RV, ask your travel agent.

RVs traveling with boats on trailers are subject to a wharfage rate, separate from the standard RV rate. These rates are $25 for a boat up to 15, $35 for 16' to 20, $50 for 21' to 25, $75 for 26' to 30, and $100 for 31' to 35.
